Re: United States v. Perry Joyner, 21 Cr 673 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

I represent Mr. Perry Joyner in this matter currently scheduled for sentencing on April 18, 2023 at 2:30 pm. Mr. Joyner has been monitored on home detention since May 12, 2023 without any incident. He remains employed and under pre-trial supervision in New Jersey.

As a courtesy for the Court's and the parties' scheduling purposes I am writing in advance to request an adjournment of the sentencing hearing. The Government consents to an adjournment. I anticipate that I will be in the second week of a four or five week multi-defendant trial on April 18, 2023 in the Eastern District of New York before the Hon. LeShann DeArcy Hall. In addition, I do not anticipate that I will have all of the mitigation information gathered in time for a full presentation on behalf of Mr. Joyner and for the Court's consideration in time for an April 18th sentencing.

I have spoken to my client who consents to the adjournment and I have communicated with the Government who also consent to this request. In light of other trial responsibilities I propose the matter be adjourned until a date in June or the last week in July at a date and time convenient to the Court.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan J. Walsh
